BRAVE MISS EVA THOMPSON.

She Locks Her Employer's Safe and Defies a Robber to Shoot.

PORT SCOTT, Kan., Sept. 16.—A daring robber entered the cashier's office of the T. L. Herbert painter's and decorator's wholesale supply house, commanded Miss Eva Thompson, the cashier, who was alone in the room, to open the safe, in which were hundreds of dollars. She refused and the robber drew a revolver and commanded her to comply with his demand. The door of the safe was closed, but not locked. The woman stepped toward it and closed the combination. He thought she was in the act of opening the safe, but, in fact, she was locking it. She turned the combination knob while he stood over her, pistol in hand. Then turning and standing erect and undisturbed before him she exclaimed: "Now, shoot!" The fellow uttered an oath, pocketed his revolver and fled.

LEONARD BLODGETT'S CRIME.

Tried to Assault a Girl, Shot Her Parents and Stabbed the Child.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 16.—At Luzerne, to-night, Leonard Blodgett, fifty-five years of age, who boarded with Edward Whitmore, attempted to assault Whitmore's daughter Dora. Her cries attracted her parents. Blodgett then shot Whitmore in the jaw. Mrs. Whitmore in the back and stabbed Dora with a penknife. Mrs. Whitmore was probably killed. The others are not dangerously injured. Blodgett made his escape to the mountains, and had been gone two hours before he was arrested in pursuit. Blodgett recently returned from Michigan, where he is said to have abandoned his wife and four children.

OUTLAWS' REVENGE.

Indian Lynched Because His Son Routed Out the Doolin Gang.

WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 16.—At Cob creek, near Minco, I. T., an old Caddo Indian named in Ki Wish was found hung up to a tree by the heels and shot through the head. On his breast was pinned a paper urging the Indian police to keep their hands off a band of outlaws known as the Doolin gang. It seems the dead man's son, who is an Indian police scout, got on the trail of this band recently, and, securing a posse, routed them from their rendezvous. In revenge the outlaws murdered the old man.

Mother and Children Burned.

KEWANEE, Ill., Sept. 16.—The home of Mrs. Fridling was destroyed by fire to-night. Two children, aged three and six years, were burned to death, and Mrs. Fridling was probably fatally burned. The fire was caused by using oil to kindle a fire in the cook stove.

W. C. OWENS CHOSEN

His Plurality Over Col. Breckinridge Now Reported as 320.

Official Count of the Ballots Cast at the Democratic Primaries Saturday to Be Made at Frankfort To-day.

SOME TALK OF A CONTEST

Breckinridge's Managers Scheming to Throw Out Votes.

Many of the Colonel's Supporters, However, Have Admitted Defeat and Are Now Wearing the Victor's Badges.

YOUNG DESHA CONFIDENT

He Says the District Committee Will Favor His Father.

Rejoicing at Georgetown, the Home of the Successful Candidate for Congress—Fight Between Deacons.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 16.—The victors seek to possess the entire field; the vanquished accept defeat manfully. This conclusion is justified by outside appearances here, which began to manifest themselves early this morning. One notable indication was the donning of Breckinridge badges and donning of Owens's badges by the most ardent young bloods who supported Breckinridge throughout the campaign with their money and their personal services. These men say that they went to the election yesterday believing that every voter at the primaries was morally bound to support the nominee. Now that their favorite, for whom they fought so valiantly, seems to have suffered defeat, they feel in honor bound to support his opponent. They seem to acquiesce in the inevitable. There was a report this afternoon that Owens, Settle and Breckinridge would each issue a card to the public stating his case. This was on the theory that Breckinridge was about to contest the election. Breckinridge absolutely refused to talk. The most thorough investigation to-night failed to find a shadow of ground for the rumor. Everybody is thoroughly tired of the fierce contest that terminated in yesterday's primaries. To contest the election would be to prolong the struggle. The probabilities, therefore, seem to be against the contest.

The best figures obtainable here to-night at this hour give the totals for candidates as follows: Owens, 7,280; Breckinridge, 7,670; Settle, 3,405. Owens's plurality, 435. Corrected returns, which are expected to-morrow, will probably vary but little from these figures.

The Owensmen claim the election of their candidate by 410 plurality, while the Breckinridge men claim his plurality is only 163.

OWENS'S PLURALITY 415.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 16.—The dispatch last night stating that the Courier-Journal's returns complete gave Owens a plurality of only 238 was an error, and should have read incomplete. The precinct returns received by the Courier-Journal show the total vote in the district to have been: Owens, 8,102; Breckinridge, 7,687, and Settle, 3,407, making Owens's plurality 415, and the majority in the district against Breckinridge 4,822. To-night's dispatches have not altered these figures except in Kentucky, where Breckinridge's plurality should have been placed 121, instead of 121, a difference of thirty-one votes.

Desha Will Not Give Up.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 16.—At 10 p. m. Desha Breckinridge said he was confident of his father's election. Said he: "I cannot give out a statement by counties, but our latest reports reduce Owens's plurality to 141. I am sure that the count will be given us by the district committee when it meets. If it does not I am not prepared to say what will follow; may be a contest."

Threat of Owens Men.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 16.—A Commercial Gazette special from Lexington, Ky., says: Late tonight leading Owens men say that if the nomination is taken from Owens and given to Breckinridge that they will vote for the Republican nominee.

JOY AT GEORGETOWN.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Sept. 16.—The people of Georgetown have not yet ceased celebrating the triumph of their honored fellow-citizen in the congressional primary election yesterday. All day Mr. Owens has been flooded with congratulations from all parts of the country. He bears the well-earned victory with his usual modesty. It was long after midnight before the enthusiasm aroused by the returns last night allowed the happy people to retire. The enthusiasm which was in full blast was dampened for a while by unfavorable reports, but when the news of the victory was made certain bedlam broke loose. More crazy with joy hugged each other in a way that would have made them ridiculous on any ordinary occasion. The good-natured mob, for it was nothing else, seized upon Mr. Owens and tried to carry him to their shoulders. The courthouse bell was rung, a balloon was sent up, fireworks filled the air and bonfires blazed on every corner. A dry goods box was placed on the public square and Mr. Owens was lifted upon it. But speechmaking was out of the question. Mr. Owens said that he had been doing the speaking, but the boys had done the work; it was their night to howl and he wanted them to enjoy themselves. After the people had yelled themselves hoarse they insisted on a speech and Mr. Owens spoke briefly from the balcony of the Wells Hotel. He said: "For some months I have been furnishing the chin music, but this is to me the sweetest music I ever heard. You have done all you promised to do, but I want to exact one more promise from you, and that is to support the nominee, and I won't let you down. I will take your word. I am only the instrument through which the people, the noble men and women, have won the victory. I believe that the work of the men and the tears and prayers of the women would bring a good result."

CHRISTIANS AIDED.

Members of the Church Helped to Defeat Colonel Breckinridge.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 16.—A strong Breckinridge man, cashier in one of the banks here, attributed the defeat of his candidate to the opposition of Judge Morton and Professor McGarvey, of the Christian Church. He said: "The Christians have a very strong following here and we ordinarily we should have given 800 to a thousand plurality to Breckinridge, we carried Fayette county by only 205 votes."

Col. John R. Allen, county attorney, one of Breckinridge's supporters, says that he intends to support Owens, and in fact is wearing an Owens button.

Poyntz Nelson, of the State college, a man very close to Colonel Breckinridge, said he did not believe any of the rumors that Breckinridge would contest. The contest will meet in Frankfort, he said, to canvass the vote, and if anything wrong is discovered it will be righted there. A few, however, complain that Breckinridge men had a stack of affidavits at every polling place and voted every man they could on one of these affidavits. A story was started that W. S. McChesney, Jr., and another Breckinridge man took a carriage and went to Scott county with $5,000, intending to buy up the officers of election, but arrived too late. Traced to its source, this story appears to have been founded on the fact that McChesney hired a carriage at a livery stable to take Colonel Breckinridge to Treveila, the home of Mrs. Douglas, where Colonel Breckinridge and his wife were staying.

Col. T. Logan Hocker, the original Owens man, of Lexington, said: "As voters we can afford to be generous. I fought the Colonel to the best of my ability, but now that he is beaten I have no unkind words for him or for any of his good friends who worked for him. We are all Democrats."

SEARCHING FOR FRAUDS.

Breckinridge Managers Want to Throw Out Votes.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 16.—A special dispatch from Lexington, Ky., says: No more official returns have been received from the country, most of the telegraph offices in the smaller towns being closed on Sunday. The Breckinridge managers from all parts of the district have been in close consultation here all day. They figure Owens's plurality at 320, against 410 plurality claimed by the Owens men.

Dr. R. J. O'Mahoney, a Breckinridge devotee, has been sent to Henry to see if he could not find grounds for charges of fraud against the officers of one precinct in the past week, which Owens advocates overwhelming majority, and thereby throw out the Owens vote. Mr. A. Cassidy, a detective employed by the Breckinridge committee, is on Owens county on a similar mission. The Breckinridge leaders claim that in Scott county Owens received many fraudulent votes as 600 more Democrats voted in this county yesterday than at the last election. Mrs. Harry T. Groves, who has worked hard for Breckinridge, said to-night: "I was surprised at Breckinridge's strength. I had never a doubt that Owens would fail nomination. I think now that Mr. Owens would not have succeeded if the ladies had not taken up the fight. He is the universal opinion of the ladies of the district that had the moral question not been interposed, there would have been no fight against Breckinridge."

THE OFFICIAL COUNT.

It Will Be Controlled by Breckinridge and May Be Juggled.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 16.—Breckinridge men here are reluctant to acknowledge their defeat. Some of them are still claiming the nomination of Colonel Breckinridge by a small majority. They have their hopes of contesting the election on the fact that the Owens county vote fell off five hundred from last fall. Chairman Gaines of the Breckinridge committee here, went to Lexington to-night to consult with party leaders there. Owens men claim the nomination by 341 votes. The official count will be held to-morrow, and as a majority of the elections committee favors Breckinridge it is expected that advantage will be taken of every contested vote to seat the Colonel.

Elisabeth Duncan, in a prayer before the Methodist Conference here to-day, thanked God that the right had been upheld in putting down bad men who aspired to public office.

Col. Phil Thompson's Views.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Colonel Breckinridge's defeat was a severe disappointment to Col. Phil Thompson, who was one of the counsel for the Kentuckian in the case brought by Miss Pollard, Colonel Thompson was at the Hotel Windsor to-day. "It seems," he said, "that the enemies of Colonel Breckinridge have triumphed. I am sorry to hear that he is so fully represented and vilified, and all because he would not elevate his mistress to a plane above his children in his own household." "Do you think this means the end of the Colonel's career?" "It looks as if it might, at least in Kentucky. But he gave his opponents a game fight. He had the praying women on his machine against him, and yet was beaten only a few hundred votes."

TWO WICKED DEACONS.

One's Ear Harpooned and the Other's Eye Blacked.

PARIS, Ky., Sept. 16.—This morning Deacon Horace Miller, an Owens man, and Deacon D. J. Butler, who voted for Breckinridge, were discussing the election. Hot words passed and Deacon Butler harpooned the ear of Miller with his umbrella, whereupon Deacon Miller blacked Deacon Butler's eye. They were then separated.

Shot by a Challenger.

PARIS, Ky., Sept. 16.—At Riddle's Mills, this county, at 7 o'clock this morning, Ben Duval shot and fatally wounded Ed Faulkner, aged twenty-two. The trouble originated over the former challenging the latter's vote at the election yesterday.

ROSEWATER'S REVOLT.

The Omaha Editor Will Take the Stump Against Majors.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 16.—The revolt in the Republican party of Nebraska, led by Edward Rosewater against the head of the State ticket, Thomas J. Majors, opens its campaign this week. Mr. Rosewater will stump the State against Majors. He has procured the congressional records of the past years in the case with his unit, whereupon Deacon Miller blacked Deacon Butler's eye. They were then separated.

Peffer Assails Martin.

GALENA, Kan., Sept. 16.—In his speech at Columbus Saturday evening Senator Peffer began his campaign against Senator John Martin. He said among other things: "I am opposed to the return to the United States Senate of my present colleague, John Martin. He promised before he was elected to act with us upon all important propositions, and said he believed in and would act upon our principles, but after we elected him he went down to Washington and broke faith with us."

Enloe Renominated.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 16.—Incomplete returns from the Democratic primaries in the Eighth congressional district yesterday show a sweeping victory for Congressman B. A. Enloe over Gen. J. D. C. Atkins.

FRAIL PLATFORM FALLS.

Fourteen Persons Receive More or Less Severe Injuries at New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The crowding of some eighty or more people upon a frail platform, at the conclusion of the ceremonies attending the laying of the foundation stone of St. Augustine's new church, at One-hundred-and-sixty-seventh street and Fulton avenue, to-day, caused the frail structure to give way, precipitating the crowd into the basement, fourteen feet below. Fourteen people more or less injured were attended by ambulance surgeons from Fordham and Harlem hospitals and several private physicians who were on the scene were called after the crash came.

MRS. ANNE ROGERS DEAD.

Gen. John A. Logan's Sister Succumbs to an Overdose of Morphine.

MURPHYSBORO, Ill., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Anne Rogers died during last night from an overdose of morphine which she took last Wednesday. Mrs. Rogers was a sister of Gen. John A. Logan. It is not known why she took the fatal dose. She was seventy years of age and has two brothers living—Col. T. M. Logan, of this city, and James V. Logan, of Olney.

LI HUNG CHANG TOO SLOW

Chinese Complain of the Dilatory Methods of the Viceroy.

Terms of the New Treaty Between Great Britain and Japan—Game of Hide-and-Seek on Water.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—A dispatch from Shanghai dated to-day says that news has reached Tien Tsin that a fleet of twenty-one Japanese transports, conveying ten thousand troops, sailed a few days ago from a Japanese port. It is supposed that it is the intention of the Japanese commander to land his forces at some point on the Chinese coast. The Chinese fleet under the command of Admiral Ting has sailed south for the purpose of intercepting the Japanese. Orders
